Subject: The scandalous statement of Mr. Enver Hoxhaj

Sir

Today, on November 21 2013, the majority of the Serbian media, including the state-owned RTS (Radio Television Serbia), carried the text of the statement of the so-called Minister of Foreign Affairs of the unrecognized Republic of Kosovo Mr. Enver Hoxhaj in which he said inter alia: "Resolution 1244 of the UN Security Council is dead."

Regrettably we did not see any reaction of the UN Mission in Kosovo to this scandalous behavior which leads us to ask you and other political factors involved in this process, both directly (by this letter), as well as publicly, why is that?

Is it possible that a quasi minister of a quasi country, which is not a member of the United Nations, is more powerful and speaks more loudly than the UN Security Council and is able to render null and void one of this body's resolutions while you remain silent? Is this not a blow aimed directly at you? Does this not hold to public ridicule the United Nations themselves? It is well known who can bring such a resolution and who stands behind it.

This is yet another instance of gross and blatant violation of the international rights of the Republic of Serbia and derogation of its reputation by arrogant Albanian separatists, but this time there is a new twist to it. This time, the incident is enhanced by a slap in the face of every member of the UN Security Council.

We expect your prompt reply and your public reaction to the incident. We also expect a discussion of the incident the next time the UN Security Council meets on Kosovo matters.
